Dear Mr. Zamansky,

From the day, just over a year ago, that I read the story about your law firm in The New Times, till now, I have been in the professional hands of competence, attention and understanding working with your staff on my "recovery journey"

In my first meeting with Ed Glenn I was given hope, Nancy Montaro helped me patiently assemble the needed files and Jeff Kret led me kindly down memory lane and you took my story and informed me of what to expect.

Thank you, thank you.....I now feel that I am back on track with that part of my life.

Sincerely yours

I received the check you sent me & wanted to express my appreciation. I knew anyone in your profession with the name "Jake" had to have integrity & could certainly be relied on. I thank you very much & wish you the best!

Dear Jake:

Your thoughtfulness
means so very much

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Zamansky:

We would like you to know that we sincerely appreciated all of your extra efforts earlier this week on our behalf.

As Gary suggested, we would be happy to be your escort for a fishing trip here in Idaho when your schedule permits. The best months for fishing would be from the first of June through the end of October.

Otherwise, please bring your "snow skis"!

Very Truly Yours,

Dear Jake:

If I win anything, I feel it will be because of "you" and your reputation.
I would never want you on the opposition.
Thank you so much for your time.

Best wishes,

Dear Mr. Zamansky

We are writing to express our sincerest appreciation for the outstanding job you did on our behalf and many other retirees. We were hesitant at first, having never been involved in an action such as this. We were so impressed upon meeting the "GOT CHA TEAM" and we felt fortunate and confident from the start. We can't even imagine the amount of work it took to get the positive outcome that we received. Obviously—experience counts!!! The New York Times story with photo and the Akron Beacon Journal story had to carry great weight. You deserve to be happy and proud of the commendable work you are doing. You are truly a compassionate, professional team with integrity.

We visited South Padre Island in November and could not resist getting a photo of Joe about to be eaten by a giant shark. After seeing the photo, the first thing that popped into our minds was—this was what Mike Dobbins was about to do to us until the GOT CHA TEAM rescued us. Thank you. Our prayers are with you for your continued success.

Sincerely yours,
